

The University of South Florida
St. Petersburg Campus
Dedication Week Activities Open to Public
May 10-16, 1981

- Sunday, May 10, 3:00 p.m. The Nelson Poynter Memorial Library presents Pauline Atherton Cochrane, University of Syracuse, speaking on "Competitive Cooperation: Impact of Technology on Libraries"
Open House of Library following
- Monday, May 11, 7:30 p.m. The College of Education presents Dr. Roger M. Nichols, Deputy Commissioner of Education, State of Florida - "The Politics of Education"
- Tuesday, May 12, 7:30 p.m. The College of Arts and Letters presents Russel B. Nye, Distinguished Professor, University of Michigan - "What Good Is the Past?"
- Wednesday, May 13, 12:00 The College of Business presents Dr. Richard Rahn, Chief Economist and Vice President, United States Chamber of Commerce
7:30 p.m. Mr. James Rosenquist, Artist - "The Business of Art"
- Thursday, May 14, 7:30 p.m. The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences presents J. P. Mayer, University of Reading, England - "Marx and Tocqueville"
- Friday, May 15, 10:00 a.m. The Department of Marine Science presents Dr. Harold J. Humm - "Marine Science at USF: Past, Present and Future"
Open House for the remainder of the day
- Saturday, May 16, 10:00 a.m. Dedication Ceremony (on campus lawn facing the water)
Dedication of the Nelson Poynter Memorial Library and Bayboro Hall
11:30-4:00 Campus-wide Open House
Student led tours, steel band, refreshments

--- All events to be held in Bayboro Hall, Room 130

--- Reception and Refreshments following each event