Dear Ms. Stull:

On behalf of JWB (Juvenile Welfare Board of Pinellas County), thank you for again sponsoring the Cooperman-Bogue Awards. This marks the ninth year that AEGON Equity Group has partnered with JWB. Since the awards' inception, your company's financial support has provided the means to honor 32 outstanding human service workers. AEGON Equity Group's contribution allows for cash awards to each quarterly winner, as well as the $1,000 cash award to the annual winner.

This year's dinner to honor the 2001 quarterly winners and announce the annual winner is set for Tuesday, April 9th, at the new Radisson Hotel and Conference Center. Your invitation is enclosed. Tom Moriarty and Gail Moore also have been sent invitations. We hope all of you can join us and that as a former JWB member, Tom again can participate in the presentation ceremonies.

I also am enclosing several copies of our 2002 Cooperman-Bogue Awards brochures/nomination forms. We have upgraded the quality of this publication from previous years. As well, we expanded eligibility criteria resulting in an increase of copies and wider distribution. This resulted in a mailing to more than 1400 schools, houses of worship, day care centers, human service agencies and civic organizations, and other community outreach recipients.

Again, thank you for partnering with JWB, and we look forward to our continued relationship with AEGON Equity Group in 2002.

Very truly yours,

Kathy Helmuth, M.Ed.

Re: Cooperman-Bogue Awards

On behalf of AEGON Financial Partners, I am pleased to enclose a check for $2,000 as AEGON'S sponsorship of the above awards. We are glad to be able to contribute to this worthwhile community endeavor.

Sincerely,
