Dear Ms. Duve:

I am writing to request the honor of again having Reginald Roundtree as emcee for the Cooperman-Bogue Awards, this year combined with our 50th anniversary dinner. Last year, Mr. Roundtree emceed our event. He specifically said he would like to do it this year should we want him to. Fact is, we were so pleased with his service that we had no desire to ask anyone else!

The Cooperman-Bogue Awards and the 50th anniversary JWB dinner will honor outstanding social services workers in Pinellas County, and the special people in JWB's past. The event is scheduled for April 2, beginning with a social hour at 6 p.m. Dinner and program will be at 7 p.m. Location is the Harborview Center, 300 Cleveland St., Clearwater.

I look forward to hearing from you regarding Mr. Roundtree's participation in this project. I can be reached at 547-5674 between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

Thanks so much for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Kate Howze, Ed.D.
Communications Director

Dear Ms. Foronda:

I am so pleased that you've agreed to serve as emcee for the Cooperman-Bogue Award/JWB 50th Anniversary dinner on April 2, 1996. This marks the second time in Pinellas County that outstanding social services workers will be honored for their accomplishments. As well, this special event will celebrate the Juvenile Welfare Board's 50th anniversary of providing services to children and families in Pinellas County.

The event will begin with a social hour at 6 p.m., with dinner at 7 p.m. Location is the Margarete Heye Great Room at Ruth Eckerd Hall, 1111 McMullen Booth Road, Clearwater. You will receive a formal invitation in the next week or so but you will, of course, be our guest. Last year, we provided a script for Reggie. As we get closer to the event, I will provide you with a script for your perusal prior to April 2.

I want to thank you again, and look forward to seeing you on April 2. I will be in touch shortly.

Sincerely,

Kate Howze, Ed.D.
Director, Strategic Communications and Technology
